TITLE:	Network Promotion and Cooperation Between Environmental NGO-s
Date of event:	18 July 2003
Place:	Vlore
Goal:	Building capacity of environmental NGO sector, towards electronic communication.
Description:	In the line of the trainings for electronic communication, Centre for Electronic Communication, organized the fifth training on 18 July 2003, in Vlora, with the participation of 8 persons from 5 environmental NGO-s from Vlora, Lushnja, Gjirokastra, Berati. These training courses are organized in the frame of the project: "Network Promotion and Cooperation Between Environmental NGO-s", supported by REC (Regional Environment Centre for Eastern and Central Europe – Country Office Albania). They consist in basic concepts of using e-mail, internet, and a short course of journalism on how to write a good article. At the beginning Ladi Balla one of the trainers presented the aim and objectives of the training and the trainer Dritan Ziu, the local coordinator of the project, Rrezarta Ago and the representative of REC, Eduart Cani. Mr. Cani presented to the participants the project objectives and expectations. Participants presented themselves and their expectations in the training as follow: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ Getting more information's about the activities and what Centre for Electronic Communication offers for environmental NGO; ♦ Getting to know use of e-mail and internet ♦ Information exchanged through a mail list and environmental NGO-s; ♦ Improvement of communication and relationship between environmental NGO; ♦ Getting more knowledge on the basic elements to write an article; ♦ Practice on internet related with the strategy of searching on internet and searching engines; Ladi Balla presented the mission, activities, the future, and the web page (www.qke-al.org) of the Centre for Electronic communication, Dritan & Ladi, both, explained the efficiency and the function of Electronic Post, how to send & receive e-mails and the basic knowledge of Internet and the strategy of searching on internet too. For more than 1 hour, participants practised on internet, using the searching engines as: Alta Vista, Google, Excite, creating personal e-mail addresses, sending e-mails to each – other and to Electronic Group address. They also visited the web page of the Centre for Electronic Communication: www.qke-al.org, getting more information, not only environmental, but on what this centre offers. For more information on the regional projects they visited the REC web page www.rec.org. Later on, participants followed a short journalism course, presented by the local journalist, Harrilla Koci. Speaking about environmental problems and exchanging opinions between them, participants profited some of the basic elements of writing an article. The participants, at the end of the training course, filled an Evaluation Form.
